
AMENDMENT

TO BE MOVED

BY MR. BUCHANAN,

On Mr. GALT'S motion for going into Committee
On the Tariff.

AMENDMENT

To be moved on Mr. GALT's Motion, Chair, and the House go into Committee

Mr. Buchanan moves in Amendment, that the Speaker do not

That the principles of the proposed Tariff are subversive of the upon necessities, and lowering them upon luxuries, in the mistaken view

That the sliding scale proposed for the articles of Tea, Coffee, and to the community, and that to obtain that fixity and stability so Duties on Tea, Coffee, Raw Sugar and Molasses should be placed in the Specific Rates which are at present payable, and should ultimately industrious classes of Canada to enjoy these articles of first necessity, the Frontier Line.

That the Customs Duties on Brandy, Wines and other Spirits but ought to ~~remain at rates at which they are now fixed, or~~ ^{be} at an ad

duties on these articles

MENDMENT

ALT's Motion, that the SPEAKER leave the e go into COMMITTEE on the Tariff.

hat the Speaker do not now leave the Chair, but that it be Resolved—

Tariff are subversive of the best interests of Canada, as increasing the Taxes luxuries, in the mistaken view that this will produce more revenue.

the articles of Tea, Coffee, Sugar and Molasses, will be injurious to the trade at fixity and stability so much required in Commercial Matters, Customs, lasses should be placed in the meantime at advalorem duties equivalent to payable, and should ultimately be removed altogether, so as to enable the articles of first necessity, at as low a price as their competitors, South of Wines and other Spirituous Liquors, ought not to be reduced as proposed, ~~be~~ ^{be} now fixed, ~~or~~ at an ad valorem duty equivalent to these present

articles

